4. Application form

Once you have completed registration and logged in you will be presented with your HPA Application Summary page.

The screenshot shows the 'Application summary' page for a 'Fixed Term Hourly Paid Academic Staff Only' position. It includes a navigation bar, a welcome message, and a list of application pages: Personal Details, Right to Work, Education and Employment Details, Equal Opportunities Monitoring, and Declaration. There are also 'Other options' like 'Print preview (Opens in new window)'. An 'Apply' button is visible, along with a 'Delete' button. An 'Icon guide' explains symbols for mandatory fields, help icons, and file attachments.

Callout boxes provide the following instructions:

- 'Click to complete each Application page' points to the list of application pages.
- 'Click here to preview/print your application' points to the 'Print preview' link.
- 'The 'Apply' button will be activated once all Application pages have been completed' points to the 'Apply' button.
- 'Application icon guidance' points to the 'Icon guide' section.

- The application form has various sections and is split into sections called ‘Application pages’. Each incomplete section will be marked .
- When the mandatory fields on each Application page have been completed, the  icon will be displayed against that page, showing that the page has been completed. Please note that you can complete or edit the application pages in any order.
- You will only be able to submit your application once all the pages have been marked as completed.
- Mandatory fields are identified by a blue dot and must be completed before you can save the page.
- Some fields will have additional information, you can view this additional information by clicking on the  icon next to the field.

5. Navigating through the Application form

Use the ‘Save & View Previous Page’, ‘Save & View Summary’ and ‘Save & View Next Page’ buttons at the bottom of each page to navigate through your application.

Save & View Next Page >>

If you use the ‘back’ or ‘forward’ button on your browser, you will lose any information already entered.

The application form will time-out if you have not saved any data for a 60-minute period. We strongly advise that you save your application regularly by clicking on the ‘Save and View Summary’ button.

You can choose to save an incomplete application and log out of your account, you will be able to re-access your saved application form upon next login.

6. Submitting your application

You will need to complete all mandatory fields within the application pages section before you can submit your application. Once all pages are marked with the  icon, the ‘Apply’ button will unlock.

The screenshot shows the application form interface. On the left, under 'Application pages', there is a list of sections: Personal Details, Education, Employment and Supporting Details, Reference Details, Equal Opportunities Monitoring, and Declaration. Below this is 'Other options' with a 'Print preview (Opens in new window)' link. On the right, under 'When you can apply', there is an 'Apply' button and a 'Delete my application' button. Below this is an 'Icon guide' with a blue dot for 'Mandatory field.' and a question mark for 'Help icon guide.' Two yellow callout boxes with orange arrows point to the 'Print preview' link and the 'Apply' button, with text: 'Click here to Print/Review your application' and 'Click here to submit your application'.

Take time to review your application before submitting. It’s a good idea to print it out and read it again. Use the ‘print preview’ option to open your form as one continuous document. Once you’re happy with your application, click the Apply button and confirm you wish to proceed with your application submission. Once you have clicked Submit you will not be able to modify your application except for your personal details. Alternatively, you can return to the Application Summary page if you're not ready.
