Post Office Identity Services - Document Certification Service

The Post Office document certification service is for customers who need to have photocopies of identity documents certified as being a true likeness of the original.

It is vital you make sure this service will be acceptable to the intended recipient of the certified copies.

We will check up to three original documents against the photocopies and certify each photocopy as a true likeness of the original document.

The fee for the service is subject to change, so please ask at a Post Office¹ for the price.

Unfortunately due to Crown copyright regulations Birth, Marriage & Death certificates cannot be certified as part of this service.

Payment for this service can be accepted by cash, debit or credit cards.

What you need to do

- Take photocopies of your original identity documents. Please make sure that these are clear and legible.
- Bring into the Post Office your original identity documents and the photocopies you would like to have certified.
- Complete the four questions in the Customer application form overleaf.
- Pay the relevant fee. Please note that the fee is payable per individual whose name appears in the document, and covers a maximum of three photocopies in total being endorsed.

Post Office branch will:

- Check your original identity documents against the photocopies, to ensure that the details on the original identity documents match exactly those on the photocopies.
- Endorse each photocopy with the words 'this copy is a true likeness of the original'.
- Date stamp and sign each photocopy.
- Return the original documents, certified copies, this completed form and your receipt.
